MURDER PAIR STILL FLEEING COPS' WRATH

No Rest for Peace Officers
Until Roundup of Barrow, Dillingham

KANSAS CITY, April 9.—Southwestern peace officers to work today with the knowledge there would be no rest for them until Clyde Harvey and Parker, still at large following their latest adventures in crime—the slaying of Carl Campbell, Miami, Okla., consisted.

At the same time officers were under orders to watch for another elusive desperado, John "Wooden Gun" Dillingham, now reported to be on the outlaws.

Week-end developments in the search for the two desperadoes. An abandoned motor car with two bullet holes in the windshield near Ottawa, Kas., approximately 100 miles from the place where the desperadoes had been released, Percy Byrd, Comanche, Okla., chief of the posse, happened following the slaying of Campbell.

A letter from Raymond Hamilton, escaped Texas convict, to a Dallas lawyer, disclaiming any connection with Harvey's activities since the $5,000 robbery of a Lancaster, Tex. bank, Feb. 27.

Belief expressed by Texas officers that Henry Melvin, who as a Sheriff, deputy and police of Dallas, Ariz., and a member of the Mexican border, ordered to maintain a vigil for Dillingham, the killer who escaped from the Crown Point, Ind., jail, with a wooden pistol.

CLASSES MUST UNITE WARNS MAJ. DOUGLAS

Crash Financial System Or Face War Is Calgary
Message

CALGARY, April 9.—A suggestion that advocates of social credit schemes in western Canada should call a conference to settle all differences in leadership so that their work could be carried on in unity was made here by Major C. H. Douglas, British economist, in addressing the delegates of the Douglas system.

Before an audience of 3,000, including leaders of the movement in Canada, Major Douglas stated that he offered no definite plan for a new economic structure but insisted that the existing monetary system, designed to cause and destruction, be scrapped. He urged that all classes be united for the sake of the country.

In suggesting a conference in the near future, Major Douglas stated that he was not a social credit advocate, but a social credit enthusiast, as named as chairman.

"We would, however, he said, leave the details of such a conference in the hands of the men in power, who are the only ones who can promote such a plan. Unless the present financial system was crushed, Major Douglas declared, there would always be the menace of a new war.

PROTESTS LOCAL
A delegate leaped to his feet and said the convention could hardly be held in the Macdonald hotel. This sort, asking for special consideration for the Macdonald hotel. He added that the resolutions passed at this meeting could be looked upon by the party as being in a measure, the platform of the party in the province, and therefore would not bring much support.

The St. Paul delegate hotly charged that the other delegates were indifferent, as they were well served with gravel and gravel, while St. Paul was being lured to the convention. Delegates coming to the convention, he said, had been obliged to come to the convention in a car, and therefore would not bring much support.

ROUTING RESOLUTIONS
A number of routing resolutions pledged the unravelling loyalty and support of the party in the Dominion and provincial leaders. The resolutions were referred to the incoming executive to deal with. Authors To Meet At Kenora, Ont.
TORONTO, April 9.—Plans for the national meeting of the Canadian Authors' Association at Kemora, June 6-8, were completed here when the executive of the organization met. Dr. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) presided and others present were Howard A. Kennedy

Included in the program, which will be of unusual character, will be campfires on the beach and an Indian pow-wow. Papers relative to the Indians and the new citizens of foreign extraction will be featured in the discussion. A poetry competition, open to all Canada, will add a new interest.

LOCAL CAGERS BEAT CALGARY TWO STRAIGHT

Back from the busines war in Winnipeg, this writer was impressed, like thousands of others, with the magnificent reception tendered the greatest junior hockey team these parts ever produced—the E.A.C. . . . It was a demonstration to warm the cheeks of any heart and to say Dan Carrigan's youngsters appreciated it is putting it all very mildly, indeed. . . . Not in memory here has there been a display of popular sentiment from the citizenry in such numbers as was evidenced Saturday night as the young pucksters came home.

The team that sent the highly-rated St. Mike's hustling back to Toronto, did it out of it all, they were mightily pleased with it as they were with the many messages of encouragement received while in Winnipeg. And that remark about the Torontonians being thankful for being finished with the E.A.C. is demonstrated by a quotation from W. G. Allen, in the Tribune last Friday: "To the victors belong the spoils and so the Memorial Cup goes to Toronto, but most of the honor in last night's game goes to Edmonton. . . . Edmonton was great in defeat."

It is objectionable and difficult to make excuses for defeat and the E.A.C. is making none. . . . But thousands of Winnipeg hockey fans will tell you they never saw a harder-loss team than the second game which finally sent the junior champions to the Dominion to Toronto. . . . I could say, with them, plenty of what was thought of the handling of the games but it's all over now and, as Allen says, Edmonton got the glory even if St. Michael took the cup.

There is plenty of satisfaction in knowing the locals are Western Canada champions and that they won the Abbott Cup by one of the widest margins in the history of the final. . . . When it is remembered, too, that never before has an Edmonton team won even a provincial junior title, it reflected more credit than ever on Coach Dan Carrigan and his squad. . . . The young coach welded together a mighty band of players who were credit to representatives in the Canadian finals.

On your reporter's return from the Manitoba capital, there were two interesting letters from Edmontonians playing basketball in the East, one from Roger Jenkins, who has been a star on the defense of the Stanley Cup finalist, Chicago Blackhawks, the other from "Long Al" Hall, former second star of the team, who played this winter on the McGill defence. . . . Both were enthusiastic over the success of Dan Carrigan and his E.A.C. team.

"I think the E.A.C. have developed one of the finest junior teams in the country and I would give anything to see them play," Carrigan surely deserves a great deal of credit," says Roger. . . . He also has high praise for the work of Red Harris, who won the Stanley Cup, as well as for Louis Trudel, Leroy Goldsworthy and Johnny Sheppard, who were on the team with the Blackhawks.

Western Canada Junior Hockey Champions Tendered Great Reception On Arrival Saturday Night

On no occasion in the past have Edmontonians turned out in such numbers or with such warmth of welcome as they did Saturday night for a massive demonstration in honor of Coach Dan Carrigan's Edmonton Athletic Club junior hockey team, back from Winnipeg where they won the Abbott Cup and Western Canada title, finally finishing as runners-up to the Dominion championship. It was estimated upwards of 2,500 people took part in the gigantic "Welcome Home" for the youthful hockeyists.

One of the most colorful aspects of the city's history was unfolded as a joyous parade through deeply-packed streets of citizens climaxed in a brilliant ceremony on the high steps of the legislative building. Here, each Carrigan player and his players were tendered the official congratulations of province and city by Premier J. E. Brownlie and Mayor David K. Knott.

From the time the team detrained at the Canadian National station, the parade had proceeded through the city streets, the grand wind-up under the brightly-lit dome of Alberta hall of law-making. It was a warm and spontaneous greeting for the youngsters who sport the Blue and Gold colors of Edmonton Athletic Club, and who had their first taste of the "big time" in the city.

MARTIN SURE OF PLACE ON TENNIS TEAM

Top Ranking Canuck Net Star Evades Davis Cup Trials

OTTAWA, April 9.—As Canada's leading number one tennis player, Walter Davis of Toronto and Regina will be selected a place on the team which will open the Davis Cup trials which will open on the courts of the Toronto tennis club, May 10, Philip D. Lyons, president of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, stated last night when he announced the selection.

While no final decision has been reached, Mr. Lyons stated it was likely four Montreal players, two or three from Toronto and one from Vancouver would compete for the remaining places on the team. The Montreal contenders will likely be Marcel Rainville, Laird Watt, Robert Macdonald and R. Macdonald. Among the Toronto players expected to be a Toronto contender and Ross Wilson and possibly M. P. Margeson may line up with him. Definite word of a Vancouver contingent has not been received but the name of Dr. Jack Wright has been mentioned.

The Canadian team will leave for the United States May 17 and will get in a week's practice on the grass courts of the Wilmington Country Club prior to the matches against the United States team in the American zone competition which opens at Philadelphia on May 24.

The winner of the Canada-United States tie plays Mexico at Baltimore on May 31, June 1 and June 2.

UNITED STATES PUCKERS TAKE LEAD IN SERIES THAT WILL DECIDE ICE HONORS FOR AMERICA

BY ELMER DULMAGE

TORONTO, April 9.—The much publicized push had been straggled off the titled Moncton Hawks last night and an estimated Canadian hockey viewer viewed a machine that was carrying none too capably the Dominion's traditional amateur hockey supremacy in a series with an under-rated challenger from the United States.

The left-winger, steel-stepped Bill Gill and forward, named to Hunt, parked on the edge of the Moncton goal. Hunt was uncovered and he fired a high shot into the net.

Robson sent the American champions into the lead in the second period after a fast checker-board play inside the Maritime blue line.

Bigham and Sullivan combined to carry the rubber past the Hawk defence and Bigham fed it to Robson.

First Period: No score. Penalties: Detroit, 1; Moncton, 1.

Second Period: 1, Detroit, Robson (Bigham), 4:30. 2, Moncton, Hunt, 14:18. Penalties: Hunt, 8:00; Bigham, 14:18. Penalties: Hunt, 8:00; Bigham, 14:18.

Third Period: No score. Penalties: Moncton, 8:00; Bigham, 14:18. Penalties: Hunt, 8:00; Bigham, 14:18.

Over time Period: 2, Detroit, Hunt (Bigham-Sullivan), 2:18. Penalties: Detroit, 8:00; Bigham, 14:18.

The annuities quickly turned to gratification in the third period when the Allan Cuppers attempted to produce some sort of rally that would flatten the invader and found none. The White Stars got through that period without being scored on and the 10-minute time stands they scored a neat winning goal.

In the famous "bull-pen" of Maple Leaf Gardens, the White Stars were laying odds of 10 to 1, even as late as the start of the third period that Moncton would win the game. There was little Detroit money available.

Second game of the series will be played here Monday night and if Moncton is still leading, it will be played Wednesday night.

That shall strike thy ball fairly and shall not push, scrape nor spoon.

That shall not alter nor improve the lie of thy ball in play.

That shall in no circumstance ground a club in hazard nor shall thou touch or move anything at hazard before thou play thy stroke.

When thou droppest a ball thou shalt face the hole, stand erect, drop thy ball not nearer the hole than the ball.

Thou shalt count every stroke thou makest and to be told thereof all penalties however incurred.

Thou shalt hold out thine own ball at every hole.

When thou hast hold out thine ball at all times, let thy feet carry thee along in the game, without undue delay.

Thou shalt not waive any rule nor exclude any penalty which thou or thy partner or opponent hath incurred.

Thou shalt replace all divots properly and leave no footprints in the sand of the bunkers.

Needst thou precepts and thy way shall be strewn with grief. Obey them that thy game may be great upon the fairways of the land.

Tomorrow, we shall all pipes on course.
